About the Gazette

The Dickens Gazette is your guide to the annual Dickens Village Festival.

It's a top to bottom look at what to do while you're at the festival. It's a souvenir. It's a program to share with family and friends when you return home.

It's a reason to return to Garrison during the coming year, we're open year-around.

Enjoy your time here. Come visit us again.

If you'd like to be included in next year's Gazette, contact Sarah at the McLean County Independent, 463-2201, or 1-800-658-3485.

The Dickens Gazette is a publication of the McLean County Independent.

A Whittle at a time!

A familiar face will be missed this year at the Dickens Village Festival with the passing of long time Dickens Village Festival vendor and friend, Clifford Rime, on July 1, 2022 at the age of 86.

If you were a guest on any day of the festival, you would have met Clifford at his woodworking booth in the corner of Piccadilly Square.

Although farming was Clifford's entire life, he had many hobbies through the years. From raising chinchillas for the pelts and rabbits for meat, to raising cattle, pigs and chickens. He was also a very talented, artistic man. He made jewelry, belt buckles, clocks, lamps and tables with agate rocks. He was well known however for his woodworking. He loved to whittle, carve and scroll saw, but he also did big projects such as a roll top desk and five grandfather clocks – one for his wife, Vanona, and each of their kids. Clifford also did a lot of wood turning, making thousands of wooden tops to give to kids at the Dickens Village Festival in Garrison. In his later years, he put hundreds of puzzles together.

When visiting with Clifford's wife, Vanona, she shared that Clifford attended every Dickens Festival except one and that was only because he was going through cancer treatments in Minneapolis that year. Vanona also shared that at the festival's first year in 1994, the vendor show featured Clifford and his carvings and another lady doing tatting. The festival has seen a lot of changes and Clifford was there through it all!

Thank you Clifford for your dedication to the Dickens Village Festival! We will miss you!

Garrison ranked 29th best Christmas towns in country

It's no surprise that Garrison is a Christmassy town. Now, the city can put another feather in its cap as it has received a distinction of being one of the top Christmas towns in the country.

MyDatingAdviser.com, which also featured Garrison in a poll of the most coziest small towns in the United States (Garrison ranked #69th), recently ranked Garrison as the 29th best Christmas town in the United States of America.

Based on several metrics, such as festive activities (the Dickens Village Festival most likely gave Garrison a nudge to the top of the list), weather and "other joyful Christmas break indicators," the city of Garrison made the grade among 152 well-known Christmas towns in the nation.

Of highlights, Garrison also ranked fourth for Best Lodging.

Light up the night parade

Each evening at dusk
(approximately 5:30 p.m.)

Local businesses, churches and organizations provide floats for your viewing pleasure. The floats will be beautifully decorated and lit up for the evenings festivities.

The parade is announced and is clearly heard in the middle block of Main Street. It will start at the top of Main Street by Wally the Walleje in City Park and travel down Main past Piccadilly Square in the Garrison Auditorium.

Who is Charles Dickens?

Born in Portsmouth, England February 7, 1812, Charles John Huffam Dickens was an English writer and social critic.

He created some of the world's best known fictional characters and is regarded as the greatest novelist of the Victorian era.

His works enjoyed unprecedented popularity during his lifetime, and by the 20th Century, critics and scholars recognized him as a literary genius. His novels and short stories enjoy lasting popularity.

Despite his lack of formal education, he edited a weekly journal for 20 years, wrote 15 novels, five novellas, hundreds of short stories and non-fiction articles, lectured and performed extensively, was an indefatigable letter writer, and campaigned vigorously for children's rights, education, and other social reforms.

Dickens's literary success began with the 1836 serial publication of The Pickwick Papers.

Within a few years he had become an international literary celebrity, famous for his humor, satire and keen observation of character and society.

His novels, most published in monthly or weekly installments, pioneered the serial publication of narrative fiction, which became the dominant Victorian mode for novel publication.

The installment format allowed Dickens to evaluate his audience's reaction, and he often modified his plot and character development based on such feedback.

He died of a stroke June 9, 1870, leaving his final novel, The Mystery of Edwin Drood, unfinished.

He is buried in the Poets' Corner of Westminster Abbey.
Charles Dickens | Feb. 7. 1812 – June 9, 1870

Dickens facts:

- Second of eight children.
- He was forced to leave school at the age of 12 to work in a boot blacking factory along the River Thames when his father was incarcerated in a debtors' prison.
- In 1833, he began submitting sketches to various magazines and newspapers under the pseudonym "Boz."
- Dickens began writing "A Christmas Carol" in October 1843. It was finished by the end of November and was published in time for Christmas.
- Dickens and his wife, Catherine, (Hogarth) had 10 children before the couple separated in 1858.

Some of Dickens' literary successes:

- Pickwick Papers
- David Copperfield
- A Christmas Carol
- The Cricket on the Hearth
- Oliver Twist
- A Tale of Two Cities
- The Life and Adventures of Nicolas Nickleby

Dickens Christmas Carol

God Bless Us, everyone!

A Christmas Carol will be returning to SACA Kota Theater for four performances during the Dickens Village Festival.

Adapted by Burton Bumgarner with a script by Heuer Publishing, "A Christmas Carol" – published by Charles Dickens almost 179 years ago – has been a popular Christmas mainstay worldwide.

The SACA Singers' sing-a-long will be incorporated into the beginning of each performance, starting at a half-hour before the play.

Performances are on Nov. 25 and 26 and Dec. 10, beginning with the SACA Singer's sing-along at 7:30 p.m. and the play at 8 p.m. Doors open at 7 p.m. On Dec. 3., the sing-along is at 1:30 p.m. with the play to follow at 2 p.m. Doors open at 1 p.m. This year, the sing-along is considered part of the play, so audience members should be fully seated before the sing-along.

Tickets are available for purchase at the Ticket Center, located at the N.D. Firefighters Museum on Main Street, the day of or in advance by visiting www.dickensfestival.com or by calling 1-800-799-4242.

Meet the English Bobby

Festival volunteers will patrol the streets of Garrison dressed as an English Bobby, but don't worry—they won't be writing any tickets. Their sole mission is to help Dickens guests enjoy the festival.

Public Restrooms

Public restrooms are at the Garrison City Auditorium, City Hall, Lamplighters and the North Dakota Firefighter's Museum all hours of the Dickens Village Festival.

Come visit Ye Olde Dickens Souvenir Shoppe

Located at Piccadilly Square, the Dickens Village Festival will have something to suit everyone's needs at the Souvenir Shoppe. It will include merchandise direct from London. Some souvenir items include: Dickens Festival Ornaments, Double Decker Bus and London Telephone Banks, British Tea Gift Sets, Lapel Pins, Dickens Books and more.

Pinching pennies

While you are checking out the shoppe don't forget to "pinch your pennies"!

There will be four designs to choose from: Scrooge and Tiny Tim, Wally the Walleye adorned with a top hat, a horse and carriage and the Queen Elizabeth. A "passport" book is offered that accommodates the various designs.

Travel back in time

If you enjoy history, you'll want to hop on the Queen Elizabeth for a ride to the Fort Stevenson State Park to visit the Guardhouse Interpretive Center at 1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The interpretive center is a replica of the guardhouse that was originally used to house prisoners and the soldiers who guarded them at the frontier military fort.

The Guardhouse Interpretive Center is open each day of the festival from noon to 5 p.m.

Take in the trees

For the past few years, Jill Fuller of Garrison has decorated several themed Christmas trees placed around the community during the Dickens Village Festival.

This year, Fuller has found that “developing a posse” – about eight helpers, much to Fuller’s appreciation – to help assemble the decorated trees has made the process easier.

The process of putting the trees together starts in September, arranging the trees and getting decorations into totes, explained Deb Altringer, a member of Fuller’s posse. “Then she has people, like me, who go and do some trees in the community.”

Then, she added, Fuller gives them a look to see the progression of the tree – then does any necessary tweaking, Altringer added.

Each year, Fuller said she tries to change the themes of the trees. “I think we should keep it fresh,” she added.

Starting with the Garrison City Auditorium, which will be transformed into Piccadilly Square for the festival, upon walking inside, you will be greeted by “Frozen,” a tree decked out in crystal and glass ornaments. Inside is a tree decorated with golds, rust tones and coppers. Titled “Old World Elegance,” the nine-foot tree “will be beautiful,” Fuller said.

Across the street, at The Cubby Hole, is “Topsy Turvy,” a whimsical tree decorated with antique toy tops and hand-crafted German toys. (While you are there, be sure to enjoy the quilts made by the Peacemakers Quilt Guild and a cup of tea – imported straight from London – during Quilts & Cuppa Tea from 12-4 p.m. every day during the Dickens Village Festival.)

Invoking the volunteering spirit that Garrison has, the “Wings of a Dove” tree at Lamplighters includes red and white ornaments to represent blood drops. The purpose of this tree is to recognize the work done by Dennis Ness of Garrison, who coordinates blood drives in town. (Last year, the city of Garrison received an award from Vitalant for the amount of donations from the Garrison blood drives.

Also at Lamplighters is a Pheasants Forever habitat tree, which conveys “a good habitat for pheasants and other wildlife,” Altringer said, as well as a white flock tree (“Sugarplum”) decorated in pinks and golds.

While taking in A Christmas Carol or one of the several entertaining shows during the festival, the KOTA Theater will include an elegant red and gold tree with coordinating garland around the theater. Taking a page from Charles Dickens, Fuller called this tree “The Best of Times.”

Get the royal treatment

Since its arrival, The Queen Elizabeth has made her way into the hearts of the community and its guests.

While she was once called a “majestic old beast,” the Garrison community now sees her as a beauty. The transformation required hundreds of hours of volunteer labor and included a huge fundraising drive.

The refurbished Queen Elizabeth was on the streets in 2009 with new paint, replaced window stripping, signage, reupholstered seats and new carpeting.

In 2010, the flooring was completed; the PA system and heat have also been improved. Better heating was added to the driver’s cab.

The next step was to build a shelter to house the Queen.

When the queen isn’t in use, it can be viewed inside its “home.” A 20x40 building with 16-foot sidewalls – and plexi-glass panels for easy year-around viewing -- was constructed behind the building in 2011.

The efforts to improve the bus were all part of a major fundraising effort that involved the individual “sale” of seats, corporate donations and the generosity of the Garrison Sales and Use Tax Committee. (Check out the list of donors on a plaque inside the bus.)

Once ready for its makeover, there were more obstacles for the Queen. The only commercial painting bid was for $19,000 from a Bismarck company, so volunteers took on the project during the summer and fall of 2009. Upholstery and carpeting were done by Brenda’s Decor.

Volunteers Dick and Melissa Messerly, Ryan Nelson and Raymond Halverson devoted numerous evenings and weekends to the bus project. Brenda Mai, owner of Brenda’s Decor, enlisted the help of brothers Floyd and Richard Kolobakken when she was “reinstalling” wall board in the 11th hour before the 2009 festival.

In 2014, the Queen blew a gasket. Since English gaskets are impossible to find in the states, the help of an Olde England repair shop was enlisted to make a mold of the old gasket and create a new one. Rensch’s, an auto and farm equipment business in Garrison, became the Queen’s repair shop and she was restored to running order.

The once dowdy queen that arrived in May 2005, had become worthy of her name, Queen Elizabeth. It’s a name she’d been given before arriving in Garrison.

The cherry red double-decker 1961 English bus first appeared at the Garrison Chamber of Commerce’s annual kick-off to summer in 2005.

Since then the Queen can be spotted at many local events, weddings, area community celebrations and open houses.

The double-decker came to Garrison as part of a brainstorming session by former Fort Stevenson State Park Manager Dick Messerly and local business owner Mike Gackle. After exploring the internet, they learned such a vehicle existed. They searched for one that was both affordable and could be transported to Garrison. The closest was in Sergeant Bluff, Iowa.

After hearing about the idea, the Dickens Village Festival Committee decided to purchase the bus, sight unseen.

The rest is history.

A few facts about The Queen

- 1961 Bristol Lodekka (FLF Model – flat bottom floor, long body and front entrance). Built in England through a contract with the English government as part of the first double-decker bus fleet.

- Only 1,867 FLF models were built between 1959 and 1968. It is unknown how many are still operational.
- 24 volt electrical system
- 4-speed manual transmission system (constant mesh.)
- 70 passenger capacity.
- 6-cylinder Bristol diesel engine.
- Top speed is 40 miles per hour.
- Steering wheel is on the right side of the bus with no power steering and gear shift is on the left side of the driver.

- Originally painted green in England because it was a non-London bus; only the double-deckers in London were printed the typical red.

- Brought to the U.S. In 1980 by a Denver, Colo. Company. It was then sold to a company in Georgia, then a company in Iowa and finally to the Dickens Village Festival for $5,000 in 2005.

Carriage rides

Each day of the Festival, from 1 p.m.-5 p.m., weather permitting, Dickens guests will have the opportunity to ride around in a decorated horse-drawn carriage. Pick-up and drop-off site will be at 1 Central Ave. East, northeast of the City Auditorium.

Dickens, the beginning

The Dickens Village Festival has come a long way, baby.

The event kicked off in 1994 with a lighting ceremony in the city park after a community-wide Thanksgiving church service. Lights in the park were financed with money from memorials.

The first play, performed by a Sakakawea Area Council for the Arts cast, was a musical featuring 56 people.

The Main Street of Garrison came alive with a handful of street vendors. The first street vendors were the Potato Man and the Garrison Fire Department hawking pickled fish.

House tours were of the Robin's Nest Bed & Breakfast, now a private residence, and the rural Norlan Nelson home.

The first Dickens ornament was ordered.

The First Congregational Church hosted a Victorian dinner and tea, which then developed into the famous English High Tea.

The lit-up jingle bell lights on Main Street were later replaced with wrought iron brackets on light poles. In preparation for each festival, the poles are decorated with garland and bows.

Today, it's estimated that at least 1,000 people attend each day, sometimes as many as 3,000. A survey by the University of Mary in 2009 showed the festival generated an average of $175,000 each day.

Yeah, we've come a long way, baby.

House tour scheduled

A new addition to this year's Dickens Village Festival is a tour of the former Bethlehem Lutheran Church, which is now the home of Ron and Jenny Waliser.

Tours will be held every day of the festival from 1-4 p.m., with tours held on the hours. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased at the Dickens ticket center.

Warming Houses Await

Looking for a place to warm those fingers, toes and noses? Want a place to sit and relax? There are a number of locations in downtown Garrison.

N.D. Firefighter's Museum

The N.D. Firefighter's Museum, on Main Street, is a popular attraction that ranks with Wally Walleye.

During the Dickens Village Festival the museum and hall of fame is open to the public from noon to 7 p.m.

Guests are welcome to come in from the cold and tour the museum. See who are members of the North Dakota Firefighter's Hall of Fame.

Public restrooms are located on the main floor.

The museum is dedicated to preserving and presenting stories of the firefighters of North Dakota.

Just south of the museum is the N.D. Fallen Firefighter's Memorial that honors fallen firefighters who lost their lives in the line of duty.

Garrison Lamplighters

The Garrison Lamplighters (Senior Center), located on Central Avenue and adjoining City Hall, is another location to relax and warm up, or both! The center is open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. each day of the festival. Festival of trees, and treats.
