SENIOR AIRMAN STEPHANIE C. SUND | MINOT AIR FORCE BASE LEGAL OFFICE

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D. -- A vast majority of Team Minot members will never have to experience the non-judicial punishment process pursuant to Article 15 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice. However, it is important for military members to understand the different types of misconduct that can warrant non-judicial punishment and how commanders can punish offenders.

Under Article 15 of the UCMJ, all commanders may initiate non-judicial punishment. A member offered non-judicial punishment has the right to accept the punishment or demand trial by court-martial. If the member accepts the Article 15 process they are provided an opportunity to respond and meet with the commander before a determination of guilt is made by that commander. Additionally, when a member accepts non-judicial punishment they are not admitting to guilt.

After the commander reviews the member's response and the circumstances of the offense, any mitigation or extenuation factors and the member's misconduct history, if any, the commander will make a guilt determination. If found guilty, the commander will determine the appropriate punishment.

The maximum punishment for an Article 15 action depends on the rank of the member being punished and the rank of the officer imposing punishment. Typical punishments include, but are not limited to, reduction in rank, forfeiture of pay, extra duty, restriction to base or a reprimand. The commander can also choose to suspend any portion of the punishment. The suspended punishment acts as a probation period for no more than six months. During this period, if the member commits further misconduct the suspended punishment can take effect.

During August, September and October 2016, the Minot Air Force Base Legal Office processed 25 Article 15s.

Short summaries of these offenses and subsequent punishments are listed below. The summaries are to inform the community of the nature of the punishments and potential consequences.

Sportsmen's Feed aims to build camaraderie

SENIOR AIRMAN KRISTOFFER KAUBISCH | MINOT AIR FORCE BASE PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D. -- The 52nd annual Team Minot Sportsmen's Feed, which is designed to bring military and community members together, was held at the Jimmy Doolittle Center at Minot Air Force Base Jan.

22, 2017.

This is an annual event that brings together families and guests from the base and surrounding communities to sample wild game dishes and participate in family activities.

Appetizers are served from noon until 5 p.m., with the main meal at 6 p.m.

Team Minot will have the opportunity to interact with community members while enjoying various wild game dishes ranging from venison to rocky mountain oysters.

Airmen come from many different parts of the world and this event gives them a chance to sample many different wild game that North Dakota has to offer.

There are door prizes and a chances to win raffle items donated by various downtown businesses.

For football fans, the NFL's conference championship games can be viewed on projectors in the main hall and on the TVs in the lounge area.

Civic leaders and members of the Minot community donated and will prepare wild game. Each ticket sold allows an Airman to attend the event for free. Many senior leaders on base have purchased tickets to sponsor Airmen and their families.

The Sportsmen's Feed is co-sponsored by the Minot Chamber of Commerce, the Military Affairs Committee and the Minot AFB First Sergeant's Council. The event brings together the base and the downtown community as a way to keep camaraderie and take care of one another.

Building a strong partnership with the local community is very important to show support for the people around the base. We're not just a base within a community, we're a family.

At the end of the event, the remaining food is packaged and sent over to shift-workers on base who are unable to attend due to requirements of the mission.

Hope to see you all next year.

Team Minot to undergo CCRI

SENIOR AIRMAN KRISTOFFER KAUBISCH | MINOT AIR FORCE BASE PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D. -- Minot AFB will undergo a Command Cyber Readiness Inspection Mar. 20-24, which is a thorough evaluation by the Defense Information Systems Agency of all network systems supported by the 5th Communications Squadron.

This inspection provides an assessment of network security compliance with Department of Defense policies and configuration requirements.

It will be conducted at multiple locations throughout the base and DISA's end goal is to evaluate the security posture of our network systems. The base will be inspected on network vulnerabilities, physical security, user education, culture, and compliance with security orders and directives.

To that end, the men and women of the 5 CS are reminding everyone that they need help each day to continue to implement the practices learned in the annual DoD Cyber Awareness Challenge training.

Those practices include:

- Be aware of suspicious email and web traffic
- Never leave Common Access Cards unattended
- Only allow properly cleared personnel into controlled areas if they have their line-badge properly displayed—no "piggybacking"
- Power on computers every day and secure computers at least every Wednesday and Thursday to ensure they receive all upgrades and patches needed to mitigate cyber vulnerabilities

"Our cyber defense capabilities are among the top in the Air Force and I am confident this DoD level inspection will validate the operational capabilities of the men and women of the 5th Communications Squadron," said Lt. Col. Bob Mammenga, 5th Communications Squadron commander. "Overall, the 5 CS is committed to achieving a successful rating during the upcoming CCRI. "

Cinnamon Roll Greek Yogurt Pancakes

INGREDIENTS:

FOR THE PANCAKES:

- 1/4 cup (60 g) plain Greek yogurt
- 1/2 cup (40 g) rolled oats*
- 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 2 large egg whites OR 1 large egg
- 1-2 Tbsp (15-30 ml) unsweetened almond milk**
- 1/2 tsp vanilla extract

FOR THE CINNAMON SUGAR FILLING:

- 1 Tbsp (15 ml) coconut oil, melted***
- 1 Tbsp (12 g) coconut palm sugar****
- 1/2 tsp ground cinnamon

FOR THE VANILLA FROSTING:

- 1 Tbsp (7 g) vanilla protein powder
- small amount of unsweetened almond milk (I used about 1/2 Tbsp)

INSTRUCTIONS:

Preheat a skillet over medium heat and generously coat it with cooking spray or oil. You want to make sure that it's nice and hot before you start cooking your pancakes. Add all the pancake ingredients to a blender in the order listed and blend on high until oats are fully broken down and batter is smooth and frothy. Allow the batter to sit for a few minutes so that it has a chance to thicken up while you make the cinnamon swirl - simply mix all the ingredients together in a small bowl and place it beside the stove. Pour the batter straight from the blender onto the skillet until desired size of pancakes is reached. Cook the pancakes until the edges have set and bubbles begin to form on the tops. Using a spatula, flip and cook for another 1-2 minutes.**** Repeat until all the batter is gone, making sure to coat your skillet again with oil between each batch. To assemble, spread a small amount of cinnamon sugar filling on one of the pancakes before placing another pancake on top. Spread that one with more of the filling, and repeat the process until all the pancakes are stacked. To make the frosting, mix the protein powder with enough almond milk to get it to the consistency you want. Pour it over the pancake stack and enjoy!

5 Ingredient Peanut Butter Energy Bites

INGREDIENTS:

- 2/3 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1 cup old fashioned oats

- 2 tablespoons honey

INSTRUCTIONS:

Combine all 5 ingredients in a medium bowl. Stir to combine. Place in the refrigerator for 15-30 minutes so they are easier to roll. Roll into 12 bites and store in the fridge for up to a week.

Outdoor Recreation winter fun!

AIRMAN 1ST CLASS JONATHAN MCELDERRY | MINOT AIR FORCE BASE PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D. --

With winter in full swing, it is a great time to get outside and enjoy the snow and Outdoor Recreation at Minot Air Force Base is just the place to get started.

Outdoor Rec. is an organization that gives Airmen and their families the opportunity to experience various North Dakota activities to include skiing, snowboarding and dog sledding.

From snowboarding all day in Bottineau, North Dakota, to a weekend ski trip in South Dakota, Outdoor Rec. allows Airmen to take full advantage of the winter season.

"Airmen can come to Outdoor Rec. and we'll try to find something for them to do so they're not stuck in their rooms when they could be out having fun," said Toni Sanders, 5th Force Support Squadron Outdoor Recreation assistant manager.

If you don't have winter gear, Outdoor Rec. has you covered!

The organization provides Team Minot with winter equipment including skis, snowshoes, ice-fishing gear, snowboards and snowmobiles.

"We are always finding new ways to keep people busy while also offering events in the local area for people who aren't able to get away for an entire weekend," said Caitlin Cook, 5 FSS Outdoor Recreation manager.

People interested in going on a winter trip can sign up at least one month in advance, but need to be signed up and paid for at least a week prior to the trip's date, according to the Outdoor Rec. employees.

"I hope everyone really takes advantage of this winter with so much snow around because it may not be like this again next year," said Cook, who added that there is a maximum of 20 people per trip so the sooner a person signs up, the better.

For more information, check out the Minot AFB Outdoor Recreation Facebook page or call (701) 723-3648.
