Strategic Assessment Group visits Team Minot

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D., -- Retired Gen. Larry Welch, Defense Science Board nuclear weapon surety task force chairman toured a B-52H Stratofortress dock at Minot Air Force Base, March 22, 2017. The Independent Senior Assessment Group was formed by Gen. Robin Rand, AFSSC commander, to assess the health and status of the nuclear enterprise. The team's visit to focused on discussing necessary upgrades in maintenance, support and operation facilities and current concerns for bomber and missileer Airmen.

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D., -- Food, drinks and activities recently brought dozens of Airmen together to promote teamwork, comradery and morale.

The First Friday event strives to do just that and more! Leadership at Minot Air Force Base, N.D., created an event for every first Friday of the month to increase base personnel's social fitness, one of the pillars of Comprehensive Airman Fitness.

Each month, one of the base groups is designated to host the event at the Jimmy Doolittle Center. This includes choosing a theme and coordinating with base agencies to ensure a successful event.

"The wing has a schedule, but they do not tell us how we need to plan it," said Master Sgt. Tiffany Steele, 5th Maintenance Group aerospace ground equipment flight chief, also March's First Friday event coordinator. "The 5th MXG commander chose who was going to lead it."

March's First Friday event was dual-themed and hosted by the 5th MXG. The theme was St. Patrick's Day as well as the base's deployment celebration for the 23rd Bomb Squadron.

March's event was free for everyone in attendance to support recent deployers. The 5th Force Support Squadron rounded up the money needed to cover the costs.

During the event, food was served from 4-6 p.m. A costume contest and many games were held throughout the event.

"We had three individuals dressed up very festive," said Steele. "We called the contest Lucky Leprechauns."

March's First Friday lasted until 11 p.m. due to people enjoying the night, added Steele.

"It's not mandatory fun," said Tech. Sgt. Jason Witkowiak, 5th MXG AGE craftsman and assistant coordinator to Steele. "You never know what the night will turn into or how much fun you'll have."

"I haven't been to one except this past one, but I'm going to go to all of them now," said Steele. "Come out and have fun with the rest of us!"

The next First Friday event, themed "International," is scheduled to occur 4-9 p.m. April 7.

For more information on April's First Friday, please contact the JDC at (701) 723-3731.

Men's Winter Refuge hosts Minot Airmen volunteers

AIRMAN 1ST CLASS JONATHAN MCELDERRY | MINOT AIR FORCE BASE PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MINOT AIR FORCE BASE, N.D. -- The Minot Men's Winter Refuge is a nonprofit men's homeless shelter that provides food, shelter, clothing, transportation, shower facilities and basic medical care for up to 15 men per night from Nov. 1 to April 30.

Several Minot Air Force Base volunteers recently helped the refuge care for homeless men overnight and assist with job and housing applications.

"Our main goal is to help homeless men get back on their feet and into their own housing," said Mike Zimmer, Men's Winter Refuge executive director.

The organization also provides food, clothing and transportation funds to any homeless individuals who reach out to them year-round.

To make this possible, Zimmer noted more than 80 percent of the shelter's volunteers are from base.

"We have an amazing amount of Airmen who volunteer," said Zimmer.

"When I first started working at the shelter, there weren't many volunteers, but after contacting the base, it's to a point where about 25 of 30 nights within a month are covered a.m. and drivers volunteer for an hour either in the morning or afternoon.

Senior Airman Audrey Blake, 5th Security Forces entry controller, is a frequent volunteer.

Blake, who has volunteered for more than a year, said she enjoys volunteering so much that she tries to bring in as many volunteers to help the organization.

"It feels great to give back," Blake said.

"My experience volunteering at the shelter makes me passionate about volunteering and encouraging others to do the same."

Zimmer also noted his appreciation for the assistance from Minot Airmen.

"It's truly a blessing for us to have many military volunteers help out," Zimmer said. "Thanks to them, I never worry about anything going wrong while I'm not there."

For more information or to sign up as a volunteer, call 701-822-2585.

by the base's volunteers."

He added that an average of 30-40 Airmen volunteer per month and often do so more than once.

Overnight volunteers stay from 7:30 p.m. to 6

To give our students flexibility in seeking their CCAF or bachelor's degree, we offer 8- and 16-week classes. Our MSU advisor is conveniently located on base to assist you with your college plans. For currently enrolled students, summer and fall registration begins March 21st.
