HEALTHY TIDBIT

Fresh garlic cloves in cooking pack more flavor and health benefits than other forms of garlic, such a garlic powder, flakes, and paste. However, recent studies show that even garlic powder reduces total cholesterol, LDL ("bad") cholesterol, fasting blood glucose, and blood pressure. Add garlic to dips, hummus, sauces, vegetables, salad dressings or roast and spread on crackers.

Fleischkeuchla feed for Kaycee Link

By KATE JOHNSON

Growing up in Golden Valley, Kaycee Link didn't expect she would be battling a brain injury in her early twenties.

As a child and teen she filled her time with sports, friends, family and reading. She competed in volleyball, basketball and track and field throughout her schooling.

After graduating from Beulah High School in 2012, Kaycee went on to pursue a law degree. Upon completing her first year of law school in Kansas, Kaycee had two classes left on her MBA, but she had to undergo her first brain surgery in December of 2016. She had experienced an adult onset hydrocephalus – which is excess fluid on her brain.

After the first surgery, Kaycee recovered well but her headaches were soon to return in 2018. These headaches continually became worse and worse. She had a venticuloperitoneal shunt placed on September 2018 in Topeka, KS. Nearly 30 days were spent in their intensive care unit and then she came home to recover. Kaycee underwent a shunt revision in November and has had 8 – 9 surgeries and had her drain tube replaced.

Doctors placed a second VA shunt that would drain to a different part of her body. What doctors also discovered is Kaycee's condition is rare. She has what is called Low Pressure Hydrocephalus.

This condition attacks the ventricles and enlarges them, causing the individual to experience severe dementia, inability to walk and incontinence.

Kaycee's mother Mary Link explained that Kaycee experiences sympathetic hyperactivity storms. While Kaycee's brain is under this "storm" her heart rate, respiration and blood pressure rise dramatically. Physically, Kaycee becomes sweaty and rigid.

The length of time and intensity of a storm Kaycee endures is unknown – each time being different, but some do last for hours.

Since September of 2018, she has been in and out of the hospital for a total of 102 days and counting. She had spent 32 days hospitalized in Kansas and 100 days in Fargo at Sanford Health.

traumatic brain injuries – TIRR Memorial Hermann in Houston, TX.

So far, Mary reported that she is making great progress and after just six days in rehab she was walking.

She has also been medicated for several months in order to try to gain control of the storms.

When Kaycee recovers enough she is able to spend 3 – 4 hours a day in therapy.

Eventually she will be transferred to an inpatient rehabilitation facility – which costs will be associated with her transfer.

Mary has been at Kaycee's side since September and has taken a leave from her job. The Link family has had to take on travel expenses that insurance does not cover.

"We just don't know what we would do if not for the tremendous generosity of friends, family and great people that have prayed and reached out to us in so many ways," said Mary.

She went on to mention that a "thank you" just doesn't seem like enough. Those who have been by their side throughout this journey Mary said they couldn't have done this without them.

The Link family and friends are asking for the community's support to help with medical and travel expenses that have already been endured and will continue to build.
