National Telecommunicators Appreciation Week

In Mercer County, these are the folks who staff the Dispatch Center in the County Law Enforcement Center in Stanton - the County Seat.

24/7 they work and train to take the 911 calls - your initial responders - and dispatch law enforcement and emergency assistance when the calls come in.

Your local dispatchers are the voices on the end of the 911 line offering guidance and assistance, before, during and after the assistance or emergency calls.

Your Mercer County Sheriff's Department is proud to recognize these employees and their contribution to the public safety and welfare.

APRIL IS ALCOHOL AWARENESS MONTH

It's important to be aware of how much you are drinking, whether your drinking pattern is risky, the harm that some drinking patterns can cause, and ways to reduce your risks. This April during Alcohol Awareness Month, CCCHC encourages you to educate yourself and your loved ones about the dangers of drinking too much. If you are concerned or have questions about substance use, CCCHC is here to help with Licensed Addiction Counselors who offer addiction evaluations, Level 1 treatment and education services. For more information, call us today at 701-873-7788.

STD AWARENESS MONTH

April is STD Awareness Month - a time to raise awareness and take action to prevent, test for, and treat STDs. STDs continue to be a major health threat in the United States. In 2017-2018, North Dakota had an increase in all STDs and many of those diagnosed had no symptoms. Get tested today! Custer Health offers testing for chlamydia, gonorrhea and syphilis. For more information or to set-up an appointment, contact Autumn at aschaan@custerhealth.com or call 873-4433.

Epic

PLEASE BE PATIENT WITH US!

Effective April 1st, Sakakawea Medical Center and Coal Country Community Health Center will initiate Epic, a new Electronic Medical Record.

During the initial conversion to Epic, the registration process and patient visits may take longer than normally expected. Please come to your appointments early to allow additional time for the registration process and if possible, bring the following information with you:

- Insurance Cards to include Medicare and Medicaid
- Driver's License or official identification
- List of medications including prescriptions, vitamins and over-the-counter medications
- If known, past medical history to include surgeries and immunizations

In addition, throughout this transition, patients could receive multiple billing statements; some through the current systems at both SMC and CCCHC and the additional statements for services provided after April 1st. Please be patient with us as we work through the initial glitches that may be encountered during the implementation of the new electronic medical record.

A life turned upside down

By DANIEL ARENS

As the new year began, it brought an entirely new perspective on life for one Stanton woman.

In January, Rosie Coffin was diagnosed with congestive heart failure.

"My heart doesn't pump enough blood to my body," Coffin said. "And it's enlarged."

Coffin didn't expect the diagnosis. She went in to see the doctor thinking she might have a cold or bronchitis. Instead, a much more severe condition was detected.

"It was a blow to me," she said. "My whole life got taken away from me."

Now, Coffin's employer and her community are reaching out to try and help her cope with the difficult journey that lies ahead.

Ron Boyko and Boyko Incorporated are sponsoring a pancake and sausage breakfast this coming Sunday. The benefit will be a free will donation. It will run from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and will be held at the Stanton Civic Center. A bake sale and silent auction, including items donated by Coffin's sisters, will also be held in conjunction with the feed.

"I am so appreciative for Ron, the Boykos and everyone that's involved," Coffin said, tearing up. "They are just wonderful people. I can't thank them enough." After receiving the diagnosis, Coffin said she was told her heart could go at any time, causing a great deal of concern for her and her family as she awaits the possibility of a new heart.

Currently, Coffin is doctoring at the University of Minnesota in the Twin Cities. She is on the list for a potential heart transplant in June.

Coffin said she considered other options, such as a heart pump. However, she decided she didn't want foreign objects inside her, especially with the potential of them making a transplant more difficult.

As a result of this condition, Coffin, 52, is no longer able to continue working as a laborer with Boyko Incorporated in Stanton, a position she said she loves. She said she is a very active person, which also makes her condition more difficult to bear.

Coffin said she is unsure what caused the condition.

"It gets to be hard to comprehend that I have this situation," she said.

At this point, Coffin is visiting a heart specialist in Bismarck every two months, in addition to working with her primary caregiver Heather Czywczynski. She also goes to Minnesota every six weeks, and said she will likely have to live there temporarily as the time for the potential transplant approaches, so that she is readily available if the right heart for her comes in.

Recently, Coffin was able to enjoy a slumber party with all her kids and grandkids, who came up to see her. She said that has been a major highlight for her in the middle of her struggles.

"Those grandkids, those are some pretty precious things, I tell you," she said.

Coffin said Boyko was aware of her financial situation, and the high costs associated with doctoring these kind of conditions.

Coffin is hopeful for the future, saying she was told at Minnesota that she is a good candidate for the transplant. But, until June at least, all she and her family can do is wait.

"Well, it's like what do I do?" she said. "I don't have income coming in anymore." She added that she is currently filing for disability.

This situation makes her all the more grateful to Boyko and those who are coming out Sunday to help.

"The help is very much appreciated, and it's great people help out like this," she said.
