One needs things to do another day, maybe two

When I woke up this morning my plan was to get up, clean up, get dressed and change the world. It went pretty smooth until I left my house. By noon, I hadn't accomplished much of my basic mission and what I was was-disappointed, disgusted, and a whole batch of "dises." Had I been dissed? I ain't sure but I probably just misspelled and misused a lot of vocabulary. Well who cares!

You guessed it. I left changing the world for another day. Maybe the day after.

I thought I should feel like a failure. I do some days and I suspect I have company. In my defense, I did what Jesus commanded the crippled man to do when He found him lying on his bed beside the healing pool. The man had been there for years but could never quite make it in and no one would help him. In true Jesus fashion, he commanded the man to rise, to stand up. And he added he should take his bed with him. Sort of clean up your mess on your way out to your new life. Well, I stood up and cleaned up. The fact I failed to change the world is likely due to some supernatural divine reckoning. Or. There may have been some question as to just who I thought I was changing the world?

I contemplated that from a unique meditation position I came to be in after injuring my many times injured ribs again. You may be happy to know, I have crossed "changing the world" off my list of things to do.

In place of that, I entered, "write a book for children." It isn't easy, either. I'm having trouble deciding whether to write it about my first childhood or the second one, which I'm enjoying these days - maybe a combination, which would allow me to at least double my witch tales. Kids will never go walking in the woods alone after hearing my witch stories. I still have sleepless nights thinking about some of them. The ones with hungry lawyers in them are the worst? Kids could be scarred for life by the time it came to the "bled dry" parts of the stories.

But, I bend the truth. I was never bled completely dry. Bled white, maybe. If Michael Jackson, rest his soul, wanted to be white he could have just hired one of my ex's lawyers. But, I can't say he would have felt much like singing and dancing after. Probably just took to his filthy bed beside the dry pool at Wonderland mansion and whined his life away to anyone who would read him. Excuse me. Make that Listen to him. I still get light headed and confused from a low level of type B negative once too often. B negative is very rare and collectible I hear. Speaking of blood, I told you some time ago about research where they took blood from young rats and put it into old rats to renew their youth. Seems some folks got caught doing it with humans. No report on how it turned out. It matters not. Before I let them change my old blood out for any youthful blood, I want a signed affidavit that the kid had a job and didn't live at home, which is the whole benefit of having youthful blood. Otherwise, it's just more of the same old thing.

Not that I have anything against the youth of today. But, I will bet you a nickel there are more rocket scientists listed as sperm donors, compared to say, skateboarders. You think Charlie Manson ever did business at one of those places and used a fake name? Yes, a couple of possibilities do come to mind.

Once or twice, I have had someone tell me they read this mess regularly. I always have to ask, "Has it appeared to have damaged you in any way?" One lady said, "Oh, you write about everything. And you do it all in the same story?"

There is also the stock inquiry from some folks: "Are you nuts?" To which I simply say, "You think Charlie Manson ever did a sale in North Dakota?" While I'm name-dropping, I'm sure I have mentioned that I knew one of the Manson Family women. Went to high school with her, actually. A sweet gal, as I remember. I wonder if she ever married? Catching one of those on the rebound would be akin to having someone throw you a basketball full of butcher knives. You guessed it. I was smitten with her but too shy to talk to her.

We'd have a lot to talk about today. She could tell me about murdering folks and I could go on and on about being bled dry by thirsty lawyers. She might make the perfect Grandma in my book for children. A pop-up featuring thirsty lawyers with butcher knives. Yes, "Shut and go to sleep. Don't make me have to sit here and read another chapter out of Grandpa Ken's book? And quit that crying!"

I may not be able to change the world, but I think I waited too long. For the life of me, I can't remember why I had that thought to start with. The world seems to be changing on it's own with no help from me.

STAGE 1 BURN BAN FOR OLIVER & MERCER COUNTIES

As of April 23, 2019 Mercer & Oliver Counties, which includes all Cities within the counties, will be under a Stage I Burn Ban ONLY WHEN the ND Fire Danger Ratings Map shows high, very high, extreme and/or a Reg Flag warning has been issued for Mercer County and/or Oliver County. You can see ND Fire Danger Rating Map if you go to the following website and scroll down to the middle: <https://www.ndresponse.gov/burn-ban-restrictions-fire-danger-maps>

A STAGE I BURN BAN MEANS:

- No controlled burns, no large pit fires and no burning garbage of any kind.
- No throwing cigarette butts or anything out in a grassy area or any area that may start to burn.
- No Special burning permission will be given for any reason.

BUT,

You can have a Campfire in a developed recreational site or improved site, while always keeping an eye on it. You can use grills and units that have an on/off switch in an area that you can safely operate without starting a fire.

Remember even though you are allowed some options to burn this doesn't absolve an individual or organization from liability or responsibility for any fire started by the allowed activity.

AND REMEMBER...

ANY INDIVIDUAL WHO WILLFULLY VIOLATES THIS BURN BAN IS GUILTY OF A CLASS B MISDEMEANOR (NDCC 37-17.1-10.1) PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF UP TO $1500 AND 30 DAYS IN JAIL. THE MERCER & OLIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENTS ARE AUTHORIZED TO ISSUE CITATIONS TO VIOLATORS.

When the Burn Ban is lifted, we are asking that all controlled burns be reported to the Sheriff's office, 745-3333, when the fire starts and then another call when the fire has been extinguished, Thank You!

Please Visit www.mercercounty911.com for Fire Ban Updates.
