Sometimes you just keep on keepin' on

Morning at the House of Misery. How do I know? The alarm clock tells me so. The alarm clock is my earthly instruction to get my lazy solid waste disposal unit out of bed and headed to work. If I keep a good battery in my clock, it hardly ever fails. It spends 24 hours going "tick, tock" like clockwork and buzzes until I respond at the time of my choosing. My clock keeps on keepin' on and reminds me to do the same. Some days, I wish I'd come with replaceable batteries and not the kind that need re-charging. Being an older model, I would likely have a large handle to rewind my spring and no batteries.

During the first 17 years of life, I had no need for an alarm clock. I had an unfailing device we just called "Mom." Mom was a wonderful unit with one exception... she did not come with a shut off switch. Nope, she'd go on and on and on... Looking back, I don't think I was ever late for anything while Mom was being alarming. It wasn't until I began talking to girls other than my mother that I found myself arriving late for most everything because there appears no "last minute" in women of a certain age, and there is only one phase of late they seem to worry about. Note: This opinion does not apply to all women and I wish to offend none other than the two or three I have known. Thank you.

It is my belief that I have awakened to about every verbal abuse that could be mustered, every alarm bell and chime, along with way too many bugles. There was the time it appeared my time had run out, but I was called awake by the voices of my family. It took them quite a while to get through to me, and I awakened to my son telling me I had to get up to go hunting. I think, had they had a female voice scream, "Get up out of that bed or you'll be late for school," I would have shot right out of the blankets, into my pants, out of the hospital and down to the nearest corner looking for a school bus.

My friends, who have retired, say it feels good not to be a slave to a clock any longer. There are days when I wonder what it would be like to get up and have nothing to do and all day to do it. No more alarm clocks or the dreaded newspaper "deadlines." I don't know why they are called that. No one I've ever worked with can recall anyone dying for being late to a deadline. I have heard reports of threats, but that was as far as it went. Oh well, it is hard enough to find and keep help as it is.

So, retirement is, perhaps, simply eternity's waiting room. Hopefully, eternity will be less costly, have fewer doctor visits and be generally less boring. I try not to envision what waiting on women will look like there.

"Been waiting long?" - "No, only 5 or 6 hundred years."

Time marches on and clocks call the beat of the drums. There are clocks everywhere. Clocks are on your phone, your computer, your oven, your microwave, your wall, your desk, your wrist, on towers and street signs. You may not know where you are but there's no reason for not knowing what time it is.

Of course, the number of devices for time do not promise that people can read them correctly. How many people do you know who will set a time to meet you and not show up? Thus proving the point that knowing time does not mean a person can actually "tell" time. I have some friends who I am sure passed time telling class in grade school only because their parents were rich and spent hundreds bribing the teachers. After all, a big hand, a little hand and all those numbers can certainly be challenging, to say nothing of some schools that start at 0830 hours and go to 1500 hours. We won't get into time zones and Daylight savings. You know, you do have to be damn smart to tell time. What would be a good idea for a clock for high school graduates would be this. One that simply announces, "This is not your mother. Now get your lazy solid waste disposal unit out of that bed and get moving!" After which, a real hand, not the big hand or the little hand, would reach out, grab you and throw you out of your warm bed.

The better off kids of my era boasted Mickey Mouse watches, after the still famous cartoon mouse. I never had one. I thought the Army should have given us all Mickey Mouse watches the day we took the loyalty oath. What better way to keep track of all the Mickey Mouse stuff they had lined up for us to do every day and most nights, too. Speaking of time. My wristwatch, a Bulova purchased at an Army PX in 1967 for the outrageous sum of about 100 bucks is telling me that I have lingered at this chore long enough. Oh, there is one great feature about most time-pieces. They tell you how long until quitting time! Personally, I like to check the time, so as to arrive late and then leave early to make up for it. I don't know much, but I hope, in the matter of eternity, I manage to arrive quite late.

STAGE 1 BURN BAN FOR OLIVER & MERCER COUNTIES

As of April 23, 2019 Mercer & Oliver Counties, which includes all Cities within the counties, will be under a Stage I Burn Ban ONLY WHEN the ND Fire Danger Ratings Map shows high, very high, extreme and/or a Reg Flag warning has been issued for Mercer County and/or Oliver County. You can see ND Fire Danger Rating Map if you go to the following website and scroll down to the middle: <https://www.ndresponse.gov/burn-ban-restrictions-fire-danger-maps>

A STAGE I BURN BAN MEANS:

No controlled burns, no large pit fires and no burning garbage of any kind.
No throwing cigarette butts or anything out in a grassy area or any area that may start to burn.
No Special burning permission will be given for any reason.

BUT,

You can have a Campfire in a developed recreational site or improved site, while always keeping an eye on it. You can use grills and units that have an on/off switch in an area that you can safely operate without starting a fire.

Remember even though you are allowed some options to burn this doesn't absolve an individual or organization from liability or responsibility for any fire started by the allowed activity.

AND REMEMBER...

ANY INDIVIDUAL WHO WILLFULLY VIOLATES THIS BURN BAN IS GUILTY OF A CLASS B MISDEMEANOR (NDCC 37-17.1-10.1) PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF UP TO $1500 AND 30 DAYS IN JAIL. THE MERCER & OLIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENTS ARE AUTHORIZED TO ISSUE CITATIONS TO VIOLATORS.

When the Burn Ban is lifted, we are asking that all controlled burns be reported to the Sheriff's office, 745-3333, when the fire starts and then another call when the fire has been extinguished, Thank You!

Please Visit www.mercercounty911.com for Fire Ban Updates.
