Fayette Postmaster DAKOTA DATEBOOK

Dakota Datebook written by Jim Davis

February 1, 2020 —

On this date in 1940, for the first time since 1899, the Post Office of Fayette in Dunn County had a new postmaster, Isabelle French.

French was born in Augusta, Maine, in 1858 and came to Dakota Territory in 1881 to marry Frank Little, whom she had known back in Maine. In 1896, with financial help from a friend and partner from Minnesota, they moved to Dunn County where they established a ranch in the rolling hills, with the nearest neighbors over 10 miles away. It was a thrilling experience for a polished, dignified lady from the East to leave the costal, forested hills of her home and come to the windswept grasslands of Western Dakota.

However, it was quickly discovered that their ranch was a convenient stopping place on the route to Dickinson for supplies for other local ranchers, so an inn and store was soon erected to accommodate the many travelers. When local cowboys complained that there was no mail in the area, Isabelle petitioned for a local post office, and President McKinley appointed her the first postmaster. The name Fayette was chosen to honor Frank's partner from St. Paul, Dr. Fayette D. Kendrick.

The creation of a post office was of major importance in the sparsely populated areas of the state for it offered a central location for nearby ranchers and farmers to congregate, get their mail, and for local government to operate. Twice a week a one-horse buggy brought in the mail from Dickinson.

Due to the sparse population of the area, Fayette never developed much beyond the buildings erected on the Little Ranch and Frank opened a land office in Dickinson where he spent much of his time while Isabelle ran the ranch, post office and store. Like most country stores, the Fayette Mercantile Company carried everything that could be needed for ranch life, freighting in the materials from the railroad in Dickinson.

On February 9, 1940, Isabelle would have reached the mandatory retirement age of 82, so she reluctantly turned over the job, in name only, to Miss Anna Fisher, but remained active until her death on June 7, 1946. Over the 41 years things had changed very little at Fayette. Anna, who had worked for the family since 1905, assumed her duties in the same sod building built in 1900.

Kidnapped child recovered

Thanks to the assistance and coordination of several law enforcement organizations, an Oregon fugitive has been taken into custody. - The Beacon

City approves Superpumper

Last week's meeting of the Center City Council addressed the Superpumper application for an off-sale beer and wine license. - Center Republican

Cenex prepares for 2021 renovations

As spring draws nearer, so do plans for Hazen Cenex to spruce up its looks and services going forward. - Hazen Star

Erickson- McLean youth 'think chemistry, physics'

The employees of Coal Creek Station and the Falkirk Mine didn't get any extraordinary Christmas presents courtesy of Great River Energy, but McLean County State's Attorney Ladd Erickson is still confident good things are right around the corner for the employees of the power plant and adjacent coal mine. - McLean County Independent

Tax increase looks ahead

The state has issued its increase recommendations for property tax assessments in the state. Tanya Mueller, Sheridan County Tax Equalization Director, noted that six percent would be nice, to allow for no adjustment made last year, and the 10 percent leeway the state allows counties to make. - The McClusky Gazette

Wagner retires - didn't work a day

If you ask Allen Wagner, he'll say he hasn't worked a day in 13 years. That's what happens when you love your job - it doesn't feel like work. Wagner recently retired from his role as President of the Bank of Turtle Lake after 13 years in the position. - Central McLean News-Journal

Make your ads go further with All-Access Advertising

What is it? BHG newspapers are launching All-Access advertising, where advertisers can pay a small upcharge to get any print ad placed on the BHG website.

What size ads can be uploaded online? Any print ad can be put on the website. Each ad will have a pop-out display where they can be viewed in a larger size.

Why should you be online? Over 3,000 users visit bhgnews.com each month, with over 600 new viewers visiting the site each week. Online ads offer the opportunity to reach new customers and make an additional connection with print subscribers or those viewing the e-edition.

Fast Facts about BHGnews.com

- Roughly 3,500 users and 7,000 sessions per month
- An average of 650 new users in one week
- Roughly 600 e-edition views per week -- and growing.
- 65-70 percent of users are new users, with 30-35 percent being return visitors.

All-Access Advertising rates:

- Individual newspaper home: $5
- BHG home page: $7
- All home pages: $10
