Scholarship in memory of John Smith

John Smith was an avid supporter of agriculture and the cooperative system. He always supported his local cooperative and devoted many years to the Mercer County Farmers Union and the North Dakota Farmers Union Associations. He passed away in October of 2020. He recognized the future of our cooperative system and agriculture is dependent on technical training to help people be successful.

Farmers Union Oil Company of Beulah & Halliday proudly supports students seeking an education in agriculture and would like to honor John Smith's legacy of patronizing his cooperative. We will be awarding two $500 scholarships to a current senior or student enrolled in college full time (including two & four year colleges, trade schools or other advanced learning opportunities) whose parents are patrons of Farmers Union Oil Company of Beulah & Halliday, and that are planning to pursue an agricultural related degree. It is our hope that these awards will assist in developing careers that enhance the future of rural North Dakota.

For an application and additional details please email General Manager Joe Fouhy at joe@beulahcenex.com.
