Mark Lelm For Mayor

My name is Mark Lelm and I would like to be your Mayor of Washburn. Here is a brief description of who I am... I have lived in Washburn for over 45 years. I have worked at Great River Energy for 36 years. I am a father and grandfather. I love the outdoors. I have 3 dogs and a cat, so I love animals. I have experience as City Commissioner of Washburn for 4 years. Many things have changed since then. I am currently a board member of the Washburn Park Board, The McLean County Museum Board, Washburn Life Board, and on the River View Cemetery Board. I'm a Washburn Volunteer Ambulance member for 29 years, and past President for 18 years of that service for our community. I have been following and been present at many City Commission meetings in the last few years and have been very disappointed in the direction the current City Commission is going. I feel the community members are not being heard at these meetings and the community is suffering because of that. We need better communication and transparency in our community leaders and for the future prosperity of Washburn. We need our future leadership to work together in each entity to better Washburn! I welcome and encourage residents to attend commission meetings to discuss current issues and future needs and wants.

Get informed! Your voice should be heard and, with me as Mayor, it will be!

Please get out and vote!
Let's Make Washburn Great Again.
Sincerely, Mark Lelm
