BUSY DAY FOR AREA FIRST RESPONDERS

The Six-Mile corner was the sight of another multi-car crash on Thursday, July 3 around 4 p.m. in the afternoon. "The (accident) involved three vehicles, and all minor injuries," McLean County Sheriff JR Kerzmann said.

Fire Departments and ambulance departments from Garrison/Max and White Shield were dispatched to the scene as well as the McLean County Sheriff and ND Highway Patrol.

CAPTAIN’S CABIN REQUESTS GAMING VENDOR SWITCH TO BEULAH CVB

In an effort to make a "business decision" a local establishment asked city leaders to move its gaming vendor away from the Wash burn American Legion and to the Beulah Convention and Visitors Bureau.

During the commissions June 9 meeting held at the city Hall in Washburn, Captain's Cabin Owner Scott Filz and Manager Eric Ogden approached the city leaders to request a different gaming vendor for machines within their establishment.

"This is not something we decided overnight," Filz said. "Don't think for one minute we don't like the Legion – it's a straight (up) business decision."

A ‘FAIR’ RATING

The 51st Annual Mercer County Fair, held last week, was much like a rollercoaster ride, according to event organizers.

There were some ups and there were some downs.

Shortly after the celebration of its 50th anniversary fair concluded last summer, the Mercer County Fair Board quickly got to work on organizing this year's fair, which focused on improving the quality of entertainment when people come through the gates.

Three areas were targeted to create a more quality form of entertainment, which included:

Moving the fair week up earlier to avoid hotter days of summer

Bringing in a new carnival company to provide more rides that appeal to teenagers and adolescents, the age demographics the board was aiming to increase at the fair.

And providing more interactive events to get fair-goers more involved in the entertainment, getting back to the fair's "roots" of entertainment.

CITY, OLIVER COUNTY PROMOTING BICYCLE SAFETY

In an effort to promote bicycle safety, the city of Center is partnering with the Oliver County Sheriff's Department to award citizens for wearing helmets when they are bicycling or skateboarding.

"We want to promote bicycle safety so we are planning on having Oliver County officers hand out coupons when kids or adults are wearing helmets and practicing good safety," said Center City Councilwoman Lisa Gusewelle. "When they receive a coupon, they can redeem them at the Oliver County Sheriff's Office to get an ice cream treat."
