- Use assessment data to design and adjust interventions
- Progress monitor students and maintain accurate records
- Collaborate with classroom teachers to align instruction
- Participate in MTSS/RTI team meetings
- Support parent communication and family engagement

English Learner (EL) Services (if applicable)

- Provide English language development instruction (speaking, listening, reading, writing)
- Develop and monitor Individual Language Plans (ILPs)
- Assist classroom teachers with instructional accommodations
- Administer and support language proficiency assessments
- Ensure compliance with state and federal EL program requirements

Additional Responsibilities

- Participate in professional learning communities and school improvement efforts
- Maintain documentation required for federal programs
- Support positive relationships with students and families
- Other duties as assigned by administration

Qualifications

- North Dakota teaching license (required)
- EL endorsement or willingness to obtain (preferred)
- Background in reading instruction/intervention preferred
- Knowledge of MTSS/RTI and data-driven instruction
- Strong collaboration and communication skills

Compensation & Benefits

- Salary based on district negotiated agreement
- Full North Dakota teacher benefits package
- Professional development support
- Support for obtaining EL credential if needed

Position Details:

- Full-time, certified teaching position
- Competitive salary and benefits per district contract
